Habitat for Humanity Peninsula and Greater Williamsburg

Mickeia is coming home, returning to the downtown Newport News neighborhood where she grew up. The best part? She won't be living in an apartment as she did as a child. "This is a first for my family," Mickeia says. "It's like breaking a generational curse. I will be a first-time homeowner in my family of my two sisters and me."

The Arc of Greater Williamsburg

"...Together we have advocated, championed, believed in, and celebrated our amazing clientele and their special abilities. Together we have created a diverse, equitable, and inclusive partnership that ignites our entire community."

Housing Development Corporation of Hampton Roads

"As a United Way Partner Agency, HDCofHR benefits from the opportunities provided by the United Way to collaborate, partner, and strategize with it and other nonprofits towards achieving the ultimate goal of reducing the homeless and A.L.I.C.E. populations in our common communities.

...through the UW's coordinating the nonprofits' particular services and then making those services available through the UW Community Assistance Network program."
